

THE CIVIL WAR JOURNAL OF ANDREW JACKSON NICKELL (1828-1863)
114th Ohio Volunteer Infantry (O.V.I.) Company E

"To His Beloved Wife and Children"

- I. Andrew Becomes A Soldier: One of the best there ever was!
(9/17/1862-11/17/1862)
- II. Headed South: They are tearing up notes. (12/1/1862-12/21/1862)
- III. The First Fights: On to Vicksburg! (1/13/1863-2/15/1863)
- IV. Laying In Camp: Too low and swampy. (2/23/1863-2/27/1863)
Letter #14 - 2/27/1863 is an historically informational letter!
- V. Milliken's Bend: Not so wet as Young's Point. (3/19/1863-4/1/1863)
- VI. Last Letters: The diarrhea makes me feel weak. (4/7/1863-4/13/1863)
- VII. Captain Abraham: Put off this mortal life. (7/12/1863-8/26/1863)
- VIII. From An Unknown Writer: Anxious to get north.
- IX. Epilogue: The 114th O.V.I.; Isabella Ramey Nickell.
- X. Honoring Other Civil War Ancestors: Robert E. Lee (Army of Ntn VA);
John Ogan (56th OH); Edward Culver (133rd IL)

LINK. . .
<http://www.angelfire.com/il/thecivilwarjournal>
